

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission announces that, on the occasion of various publications made in the media about issues that pertain to its responsibilities including details of investigations being carried out, such publications should not be taken into consideration by the public unless they have originated from the Commission itself or an authorised for this purpose representative of the Commission.

Nicosia, 28 September 2012