

ANNOUNCEMENT

Further to the announcement dated March 12, 2020, the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (“the CySEC”) announces that the certification examinations are postponed until 30 April 2020.

Candidates who have registered for the above exams will be informed for the new exam dates at a later stage.

Additionally, CySEC would like to inform candidates and certified persons on the following:

- Persons who have been given a deadline of six (6) months to pass the examinations as per paragraph 5(11) of the Directive regarding the Certification of Persons and the Certification Registers, they will automatically receive an extension of the 6 month-period with the respective postponed period.
- The period of twelve (12) months that the appointed AML Compliance Officers have as a deadline to pass the AML examinations is extended with the respective postponed period.
- CySEC accepts as eligible the on line seminars of continued professional training that certified persons get to attend for the renewal of their registration in the certification registers.
