

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC) in its effort for more efficient operations and improved services to the Regulated Entities and the Investors, using the latest technology, announces the launch of its new Website.

In addition, wishes to inform the interested parties who are registered in the Instant Alerts/E-mails service that this is cancelled and replaced by the RSS feed and Twitter service which offer more instant notification regarding the important updates/additions on its Website. For registration and usage instructions, the interested parties should follow the relevant information which is posted on the dedicated pages of the new Website.

Finally, CySEC informs that the launching of the new Website, is another step towards complete electronic operation which will be concluded in few weeks with the launching of the Web Portal for the purpose of received all the forms/correspondence from the Regulated Entities in digital format saving time and money.

Nicosia, 29 January 2015