Meeting between CySEC and Latvian Central Bank

NICOSIA, 7 May 2024 – The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC) hosted a meeting with the Latvian Central Bank (Latvijas Banka) at the offices of the CySEC Nicosia, on 26 April, 2024.

The discussion, which took place at the officer level, focused on Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) matters and the exchange of best practice and experiences of the two authorities in relation to the licensing, supervision and risk assessment of supervised entities. Participating on behalf of CySEC were its AML/CFT, Authorisations and Risk and Statistics Departments, while the Latvijas Banka was represented by officers from its AML Department.

CySEC is committed to working closely with other EU national authorities to ensure the effective supervision and oversight of regulated entities, and to protect investors.

ENDS.
