

PRESS RELEASE

Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission awards staff members

Nicosia, 15 February 2024 – The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC) nominated awards to three members of its staff as a gesture of recognition and appreciation to the human resources of the organization, during a ceremony for the new year.

The awards covered three separate categories including "Unsung Hero", "Source of Inspiration" and "Innovation". For the process of nominating the awardees, CySEC employees were asked to nominate their colleagues, explaining the reasons why they consider that the nominees present characteristics in the three categories.

The "Unsung hero" award went to Assistant Clerical Officer, Lina Constantinou, the "Source of Inspiration" to Senior Officer, Irene Pidia Spyrou and the "Innovation award" to Officer, Panagiotis Tryfonos.

Following the ceremony, the Chairman of CySEC Dr George Theocharides, said: "The enthusiastic participation of all staff in the awards process underscored the great teamwork at CySEC. Building a positive work culture and a sense of individual responsibility is a key priority for CySEC."

ENDS

Contacts

For further information and interviews, please contact Eleni Nicolaou at enicolaou@cysec.gov.cy or Monica Elia at monica.elia@cysec.gov.cy

