

The below announcement is being re issued as Circular C007 for correct filing purposes

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission ('CySEC') wishes to inform all interested parties of the following:

The Law regulating Companies providing Administrative Services and Related Matters of 2012 ('the ASP Law'), is in the process of being amended following discussions between Troika, the Ministry of Finance and all three Competent Authorities – being the Cyprus Bar Association, the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Cyprus (ICPAC) and CySEC. The agreed text is attached as Appendix 1.

The proposed bill is expected to be before the Parliament early September – so as to meet the Memorandum's deadlines.

Along with the ASP Law there is an amendment of the International Trust Law which is directly associated with the ASP Law and I therefore attach it as Appendix 2, for your information.

The above two Appendices are only available in Greek. For ease of reference we have introduced the proposed amendments of the ASP Law in the English text of the Law and have marked them with 'track changes' – Appendix 3.

The above Appendices will be formally uploaded on our website after they (1&2) are approved by Parliament.

	Provided that natural persons employed by eligible persons are exempted from the provisions of this Law only when they provide administrative services in the framework of exercising the activities assigned to them by their employer.

	(2) Regarding the services of trustee, the trustee is obliged to make sure that, at all times, a trust subject to Cyprus Law has at least one trustee who is a Cyprus resident:
	Provided that in cases of trusts who operate at the date of entry into force of this Law, the trustee is required to comply with the provisions of this paragraph within six months.
PART III - CONDITIONS FOR GRANTING AUTHORISATION
Chapter A - Conditions for the granting of authorisation
Head offices	6. The head offices of the licensed person must be located in the Republic:
	It is provided that a license granted under this Law allows the licensed persons to provide administrative services, for which they have obtained a license, in the Republic and abroad, provided that the respective legislation abroad does not forbid them to do so.
Persons who effectively direct the business of the licensed person	7. (1) The persons who effectively direct the business of the applicant or the licensed person shall be of sufficiently good repute and sufficiently experienced, and hold sufficient academic or professional qualifications as to ensure the sound and prudent management of the licensed person.
	(2) The management of the licensed person must be undertaken by at least two persons meeting the requirements laid down in paragraph (1).
	(3) The Commission may reject an application for authorisation, if it is not satisfied that the persons who will effectively direct the business of the applicant are of sufficiently good repute and sufficiently experienced, or if there are grounds for believing that their presence in the management poses a threat to its sound and prudent management.
	(4) The Commission retains the right, at any time following the authorisation, either to oppose any appointment, or change of appointment of a person who will effectively direct the business, or request from the licensed person additional documents or information or recommend amendments; The licensed person must comply with any demand and or recommendation by the Commission.

Licensed person shareholders	8.- (1) The Commission shall not authorise the provision of administrative services, until it has been informed of the identity of the shareholders, whether direct or indirect, and the beneficial owners of the applicant irrespective if they are natural or legal persons:
	It is provided that in respect of legal persons, the applicant or the licensed person must provide information of the identity of the natural persons managing them as well as that of their shareholders, reaching up until the final natural persons.
	(2) The Commission may reject the application to grant an authorisation if, taking into account the need to ensure the sound and prudent management of the company, it is not satisfied as to the suitability of the direct and/or indirect shareholders and beneficial owners.
	(3) The Commission retains the right, at any time following the authorisation, either to object to any participation, or change of shareholder, or request from the licensed person additional documents or information or recommend amendments if it has reasons to doubt the suitability of direct and or indirect shareholders and beneficial owners. The licensed person must comply with any demand and or recommendation by the Commission.
Persons employed by a licensed person	9. (1) The licensed person must make sure that the persons it employs, must be of sufficiently good repute and have the necessary skills, knowledge and expertise for performing their assigned responsibilities.
	(2) The licensed person must employ an internal lawyer or maintain a regular business relation with an external lawyer on an annual basis.
	(3) The licensed person must appoint a compliance officer.
	(4) The appointment of the compliance officer must have the prior approval of the Commission taking into account his/her experience, skills and good repute.

Chapter B Application for granting an authorisation, application for the extension or amendment of an authorisation
Submission of application for the granting of authorisation	10. (1) A company wishing to obtain a license for the provision of administrative services submits a relevant application, duly completed, to the Commission.
	(2) The relevant form for the application is issued by the Commission and is available on its website.
	(3) The application is signed by the members of the board of the company and is accompanied by:-
	(a) The specially formulated questionnaire, issued by the Commission and is available on its website, completed and submitted by the directors and the persons who effectively direct the company, if different from the directors, the shareholders and, if applicable, the beneficial owners and the compliance officer.
	(b) Signed affirmation by the members of the board, by which they affirm that they have undertaken every possible diligence to ensure that the information contained in the application, as well as the accompanying documents, is true, correct and complete.
	(c) Criminal record certificate and certificate or affirmation of non-bankruptcy, by any independent and reliable source, in case of natural persons:
	It is provided that where the certificate of non-bankruptcy cannot be issued by a government body, an affirmation by a credit institution in the Republic or abroad may be provided; The said affirmation must certify that the person it refers to maintains a bank account in the credit institution and is consistent with his/her obligations.
	For the purposes of this paragraph, "natural persons" are deemed to be the members of the board, the persons who effectively direct the company, the compliance officer, the shareholders and, where applicable, the beneficial owners.
	(d) The memorandum and articles of association of the company as well as all the relevant documents disclosing the members of the board, the shareholders and the beneficial owners, if applicable, as well as the registered office and certificate of good standing.

	It is provided that where the certificate of good standing cannot be issued by a government body, an affirmation by a credit institution in the Republic or abroad may be provided; In such a case, the said affirmation must certify that the company it refers to maintains a bank account in the credit institution and is consistent with its obligations.
	(e) The submission fee for the application, as provided for in article 32.
	(4) When receiving and examining the application and at any given time, the Commission may demand the submission of any additional information or any documents, deemed necessary and helpful in the evaluation of the application.
	(5) The application is considered duly completed only if it includes all the information, as well as the relevant submission fee by the Commission under this Law.
	(6) The Commission grants an authorisation only if satisfied that all the necessary fees, information, forms and documents prove that the applicant complies with the provisions of this Law.
	(7) The responsibility for the correctness, completeness and accuracy of the application for the granting of an authorisation as well as for the information and documents that shall accompany the application, rests on the members of the board of directors of the applicant, who sign the application.
	(8) The Commission may, by way of Directive define the content of the application and the information to be provided through it, as well as any other relevant matter.
Transitional provisions for persons providing administrative services	11. (1) Subject to the exemptions of this Law, a person who at the entry into force of this Law was providing administrative services, may continue to provide the said services in the Republic and enroll in the Register, provided that:
	(a) Within two months from the entry into force of the Law the said person notifies to the Commission of:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(i) the details, name, shareholders, directors and summary report of activities,</li> <li>(ii) the intention to submit, or not, an application for</li> </ul>

	authorisation according to the Law.
	(b) Within four months from the date of submission of the notification provided in paragraph (a), submits to the Commission an application, as defined in article 10, along with audited accounts of the immediate two previous years, where possible.
	(c) Complies immediately with the provisions of this Law.
	(2) The persons referred to in paragraph (1), may, in case they don't submit a notification as defined in paragraph (1), continue to exercise such functions for a period of six months following the entry into force of this Law; With the expiration of the six month deadline, the said persons cease to be entitled to provide administrative services.
	(3) A person providing administrative services at the entry into force of the this Law and who has notified the Commission of its intention to submit an application as well as the subsequent filing of an application, according to this article, may continue to provide administrative services unless its application is rejected by the Commission in which case the provisions of paragraph (4) apply.
	(4) In case the Commission rejects the application of a company for authorisation, the said company is not enrolled in the Register and must cease to provide administrative services within six months from the notification of the Commission's rejection; At the expiration of the six month period the company must settle its obligations resulting from the provision of the said services towards third persons.
Granting of authorisation	12. (1) The Commission while examining an application submitted according to article 10 has the power, within four months from the date of receiving a duly completed application to inform in writing the applicant company of its decision-
	(a) to forbid the provision of administrative services or (b) to approve, with or without conditions, the application and grant an authorisation by registering it on the Register.
	(2) The Commission while examining an application submitted according to article 11 has the power, within a time period not exceeding twenty four (24) months from receiving a duly completed application to inform in writing the applicant of its decision-
	(a) to forbid the continuation of provision of administrative services or (b) approve, with or without conditions, the application and grant an authorisation by registering it on the Register.

	(3) The Commission may, at its absolute discretion, extend the deadline for notifying its decision according to paragraphs (1) and (2), without the application to be considered approved.
	(4) The Commission does not grant an authorisation if not fully convinced that the company, established in the Republic and applying for the authorisation, satisfies all the requirements provided in this Law and the Directives issued pursuant to this Law.
	(5) The applicant company must provide all the information, as defined in the Law, which are necessary in order to convince the Commission that the applicant has taken, at the time of granting the authorisation, all the necessary measures to fulfill the Law's requirements.
	(6) Subject to paragraph (5), the licensed person is allowed to provide only the administrative services recorded in the Register.
Application for extension or amendment of authorisation	13. (1) In case the licensed person wishes the extension of its license to additional administrative services not provided in the authorisation granted or wishes the amendment of its authorisation regarding any details or information, then it submits, in advance, a relevant notification to the Commission, accompanied by any relevant information, details and forms as provided in this Law.
	(2) The Commission does not approve the cases referred to in paragraph (1) but retains the right, at any time, either to oppose any extension or amendment of the authorisation or request from the licensed person additional documents or information or indicate amendments. The licensed person must comply with any demand and/or indication made by the Commission.
	(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2), the licensed person which at any stage offers, intends to offer or ceases to offer, the administrative service provided in subparagraph (a) of paragraph (1) of article 4 must immediately and explicitly inform the Commission.
	(4) The Commission must update the Register in respect of any amendments that take place according to this article, within five (5) working days from the date of notification of the amendments.

PART IV – WITHDRAWAL, SUSPENSION AND LAPSE OF AUTHORISATION
Withdrawal of authorisation	14. (1) The Commission may withdraw an authorisation, in case it ascertains that -
	(a) the licensed person does not comply, or violates, any provision of this Law, or the Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law or Directive DI144-2007-08; and/or
	(b) the licensed person has obtained the authorisation on the basis of false or misleading details or has submitted or notified or otherwise publicised in any way false or misleading information, details or documents; and/or
	(c) the interests of the licensed person's clients are not met or are threatened in any way, following the way the licensed person provides the administrative services, or for any other reason.
	(2) Where an authorisation is withdrawn, the Commission permanently deletes the licensed person from the Register.
	(3) The company whose authorisation has been withdrawn, ceases immediately to provide administrative services and has to settle its obligations arising as a result of the services or/and the activities that is no longer allowed to provide or perform, within a period of three (3) months from the date the Commission's decision has been notified to it.
	(4) A company, whose authorisation has been withdrawn, remains under the supervision of the Commission until the Commission is satisfied that the said company has completely complied with the provisions of this Law.
Suspension of authorisation	15. (1) The Commission may suspend a licensed person's authorisation in the following cases-
	(a) Simultaneously and immediately, with the beginning of an authorisation withdrawal proceeding as laid down in article 14, if at its absolute discretion the continuation of operation by the licensed person, until the Commission has reached a decision as to whether to withdraw or not the authorisation, possibly endangers its clients' interests.
	(b) When there are suspicions for an alleged violation of this Law or the Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law or Directive DI144-2007-08 that possibly endangers the client's interests and in case the charges or annual fees according to article 32 of the Commission's Directive are not paid within the deadline; In this case, the decision to suspend the authorisation is immediate and without prior notification towards the licensed person and may be taken by the Chairman or/and the Vice-Chairman of the Commission, who shall inform the Commission at its next meeting.

	(2) When the conditions of subparagraph (b) of paragraph (1) exist, the Commission may set a reasonable deadline, that may not exceed three (3) months from the date of notification of the suspension of the authorisation, for compliance with the provisions of this Law or the Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law or Directive DI144-2007-08.
	(3) The licensed person must, within the deadline set by the Commission as stated in paragraph (2), inform the Commission of its compliance with the provisions of this Law or the Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law or Directive DI144-2007-08. Where the Commission-
	(a) Is satisfied that the licensed person has complied with the above, it withdraws the suspension of the authorisation, and reinstates its registration on the Register, or
	(b) is not satisfied that the licensed person has complied with the above, it automatically extends the suspension of the authorisation and commences proceedings to withdraw it; the licensed person authorisation will remain suspended until the Commission decides as to whether to withdraw or not the relevant authorisation.
	(4) In case the licensed person does not inform the Commission within the set deadline as stated in paragraph (2) with regards its compliance with the provisions of this Law, the Commission automatically applies the procedure laid down in subparagraph (b) of paragraph (3).
	(5) In case of suspension of authorisation, the licensed person is not allowed to provide administrative services.
Actions leading to the automatic lapse of the	16. (1) An authorisation for the provision of administrative services lapses in cases where the licensed person expressly waives the authorisation	authorisation for the provision of administrative services.

	(2) In case the licensed person expressly waives the authorisation for the provision of administrative services, the Commission immediately lapses its authorisation and permanently deletes it, from the Register without prior notification to the licensed person.
	(3) The company whose authorisation has lapsed, ceases immediately to provide administrative services and has to settle its obligations arising as a result of the services or/and the activities that it no longer provides, within a period of three (3) months from the date its decision for waiver has been notified to the Commission.
	(4) A company, whose authorisation has lapsed, remains under the supervision of the Commission until the Commission is satisfied that the said company has completely complied with any of its outstanding obligations.
PART V – ORGANISATIONAL REQUIREMENTS, GENERAL AND CONTINUOUS OBLIGATIONS
Chapter A Organizational requirements
Outsourcing	17. (1) When the licensed person outsources to third parties the provision of administrative services, it must ensure the provision of a continuous and satisfactory service to its clients and the execution of administrative services in a continuous and satisfactory basis.
	(2) Any sort of outsourcing may be assigned to persons in the Republic. Such delegation must take place in a way that it does not impede the Commission's ability to regulate the direct compliance of the licensed person with all its obligations.
	(3) The licensed person outsourcing to external bodies or third persons the provision of administrative services, continues to bear full liability for the fulfillment of all the obligations borne according to this Law, the Prevention and Suppression of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Law and Directive DI144-2007-08.
	(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Law, the liability of the compliance officer cannot be transferred.
Safekeeping of client's financial instruments	18. For the purpose of safekeeping the client's rights in relation to their financial instruments, the licensed person must maintain the necessary records and accounts, in order to be in a position, at all times and without delay, to separate the assets held in a client's account from the assets held in any other client's account, as well as from its own assets.

Safekeeping of client's funds	19. (1) For the purpose of safekeeping the client's rights in relation to their funds, the licensed person must take all necessary measures to ensure that the client's funds deposited, according to article 20, are held in a separate account or accounts from other accounts used for the possession of the licensed person's funds.
