

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC) announces the following, regarding the deletion from and re-registration in the Public Register of Certified Persons (the “public register”):

Deletion from the public register

Persons who have failed to renew their registration in the public register according to paragraph 17 of the Directive regarding the Certification of Persons and the Certification Registers 44/2019 (the “Directive”), have been deleted from it, in accordance with paragraph 20(a) of the Directive.

Re-registration - Renewal Process

Persons who have been deleted from the public register, due to failure to renew their registration in accordance with paragraph 17 of the Directive, can, in accordance with Paragraph 21(1) of the Directive, submit a request for re-registration within 12 (twelve) months from the renewal deadline. (the renewal deadline was 28 February 2019).

After the expiry of these 12 months, Re-registration will not be possible.

Before the expiry of these 12 months each deleted person may request re-registration up to 2 (two) times in total, regardless of the calendar year.

In accordance with Paragraph 21(1) of the Directive, in order to re-register in the public register, Certified Persons must:

- a) cover the hours of continued professional training they might have missed
 - b) If it is the first request for re-registration, pay a re-registration fee of two hundred euro (€ 200) in addition to the amount of eighty euro (€ 80) of paragraph 17 (2) (b)
- OR
- If it is the second request for re-registration, pay a re-registration fee of five hundred euro (€ 500) in addition to the amount of eighty euro (€ 80) of paragraph 17 (2) (b)

Please note that re-registrations can only be made through the following link and payments only through the JCC gateway. For further information/instructions please visit:
