The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (“CySEC”) would like to note the following:

CySEC, under article 37(4) of the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission Law of 2009, as amended has the power to reach a settlement for any violation or possible violation, act or omission for which there is reasonable ground to believe that it took place in violation of the provisions of CySEC’s supervised legislation.

A settlement has been reached with MD&TR Consulting Ltd (“the Company”) for a possible violation of the Law Regulating Companies Providing Administrative Services and Related Matters of 2012, as amended (“the Law”). More specifically, the investigation for which the settlement was reached involved assessing, for the period 7.9.2021 – 10.4.2024, the Company’s compliance with article 5(1) of the Law, regarding the prohibition of exercising administrative services without authorisation.

The settlement reached with the Company, for the possible violation, is for the amount of €10.000. The Company has paid the amount of €10.000.

It is noted that all amounts payable from settlement agreements are considered revenue (income) of the Treasury of the Republic and do not constitute income of CySEC.
